Yo-Yo Play Style Key

1A - String Tricks: Also known as Single A or 1A. String tricks w/a single yo-yo. The yo-yo tends to be unresponsive (at advanced levels of play) to allow complicated string tricks to be performed.

Recommended Yo-Yos:

Echo 2™, Torque™, Barracuda™, Roadrunner™, Butterfly XT™, Freehand One

2A - Two-Handed Looping Tricks: Also known as Double A, 2A or Two-handed yo-yoing. A style based on the use of two looping yo-yos, one in each hand. High-level 2A play consists of various series of continuous regenerations, such as loops, hops, punches, stalls, etc.

Recommended Yo-Yos:

Pulse™, Hornet™, Limelight™

3A - Two-Handed String Tricks: Two-handed or 3A style play involves doing string tricks with two flared bearing yo-yos.

Recommended Yo-Yos:

(2) Barracuda™, (2) Roadrunner™

4A - Offstring Tricks: In the “offstring” technique, the yo-yo’s string is not tied directly to the yo-yo’s axle, and the yo-yo is usually launched into the air by performing a “forward pass” to be caught again on the string. Yo-yos optimized for offstring tricks have flared designs, which makes it easier to land on the string.

Recommended Yo-Yo: Skyhawk™

5A - Counterweight Tricks: In freehand tricks, the yo-yo’s string is not tied to the player’s hand, instead ending in a counterweight. The counterweight is then thrown from hand to hand and used as an additional element in the trick.

Recommended Yo-Yos:

Freehand®, Freehand® NextGen, Freehand One, Metal Drifter™

Yo-Yo Performance Oils

Performance oils enhance the play of looping and long spinning yo-yos! Modern yo-yos use ball-bearing axles which over time suffer from decreased spin times or low response due to the lack of lubrication. These oils have been formulated to increase the performance of ball-bearing yo-yos and are available in two varieties: Spin and Looping Oil.
